M. Tech./Master of Science PROGRAMMES RULES AND REGULATIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

Indian Institute and Space Science and Technology (IIST) is first one of its kind in Asia primarily meant to impart world class education in the area of Space Science & Technology and to meet the human resource requirements of the Indian Space Research Organisation. Apart from the regular B.Tech in Aerospace Engineering and B. Tech in Avionics, and a dual degree with B.Tech in Engineering Physics, the Institute offers M.Tech/Master of Sciences and Doctoral programmes in various disciplines relevant to space science and technology. Post Graduate (PG) programme of IIST is tailored to impart a strong foundation in areas pertinent to the topic and also build competence in students to undertake design and development and also pursue research in these areas.

Rules and regulations governing the selection criteria, programmatic requirements, evaluation procedures, minimum credit requirements for promotion to the next semester and continuing of the course etc. are in place from the academic year 2012-2013 onwards. Director, IIST will be the final authority in interpreting any of the clauses of these rules with respect to any of the students admitted to the PG programme.

The M.Tech/Master of Sciences programme is of two year duration and is currently available in the following areas:

1. Thermal and Propulsion (Aerospace Engineering)
2. Aerodynamics and Flight Mechanics (Aerospace Engineering)
3. Structures and Design (Aerospace Engineering)
4. RF and Microwave Engineering (Avionics)
5. Digital Signal Processing (Avionics)
6. VLSI and Microsystems (Avionics)
7. Control Systems (Avionics)
8. Power Electronics (Avionics)
9. Geoinformatics (Earth and Space Sciences)
10. Earth System Sciences (Earth and Space Sciences)
11. Optical Engineering (Physics)
12. Solid State Technology (Physics)

13. Materials Science and Technology (Chemistry)
14. Machine Learning and Computing (Mathematics)
15. Astronomy and Astrophysics (Master of Science Programme, Earth and Space Sciences)

All the courses are open to external candidates as well as departmental candidates from ISRO in the ratio 6:4. The total candidates admitted in each discipline are presently restricted to 10. The clauses provided in the rules and regulations may change based on the decisions of the Board of Management (BOM) of IIST.

II. ADMISSION

The PG Programme is broadly grouped into the following two categories catering to the following candidates.

1. External open candidates are admitted to the PG Programme based on open advertisement in news papers and web as per identified selection procedure.
2. Departmental candidates are the employees of Department of Space admitted to the PG programme as per identified selection procedure. The Departmental candidates also will have to fulfill the residential requirement of two years.

(A) Eligibility:

a) Minimum qualification:

All applications must have a B. Tech/MSc/ equivalent degree in the relevant area (as specified in the programme) with first class or equivalent in their qualifying degree. The external candidates must have a valid GATE SCORE.

- b) In case of external candidates the applicants should be below 28 years on the last date of application. The age of departmental candidates from units of ISRO/DOS should be below 45 years on the last date of application.
- c) Age relaxation as per Govt. of India will be applicable to specific category of candidates.
- d) Nationality: Applicants should be Indian citizens.

(B) Selection Procedure:

External candidates:

1. The selection will be done annually through open advertisement which is also posted in the IIST website. The candidates will have to apply in the prescribed online application form,
2. Candidates will be screened based on their GATE score and the set eligibility criteria, based on their marks/ grades in the qualifying examination. The selection from the shortlisted candidates will be based on written test/interview.

Departmental Candidates:

1. Advertisement in the website together with notification to Directors of all ISRO/DOS Centres inviting application for PG programme are placed annually.
2. Employees from any of the units of ISRO/DOS can apply for the PG programme in the prescribed format forwarded through their respective Units/Centres.
3. After screening, the candidates will have to appear for an interview before a selection committee constituted by the Director, IIST. The final selection will be based on the performance in the interview.
4. Departmental candidates will have to fulfill the minimum residential period of two years.

Admission and Registration:

Candidates whose selection is approved by the Director, IIST will be admitted to the PG programme and they will have to register for the specified courses.

Stipend and fees structure:

The external candidates are eligible for a stipend of Rs.12,400/- per month as specified by AICTE. The departmental candidates are eligible to draw their salary and other allowances as specified by DOS/ISRO at the time of their deputation.

Admitted candidates have to pay the required fees for the semester. The present fee structure is as given below:

Sl No.	Item	Fees (For non-SC/ST Students) (Rs.)	Fees (For SC/ST Students) (Rs.)	Remarks
Fees payable per Semester
1	Statutory Semester Fees*	5,000/-	--
2	Student Amenities Fees	1,350/-	1,350/-
3	Hostel Charges	4,500/-	4,500/-
4	Establishment Charges	8,000/-	8,000/-
5	Medical Cover	800/-	800/-
	Sub-Total	19,650/-*	14,650/-*
One time payment at the time of admission
6	Cautions Deposit	3,000/-	3,000/-	Returnable at the time of completion of courses subject to clearance of all dues and on production of cash receipt in original
	Grand-Total	22,650/-*	17,650/-*
For availing Canteen Services, all M. Tech/ Master of Science students will be required to take coupons from the Canteen Office.

Subject to Revision

For the departmental candidates the fees will be paid by their respective parent Unit/ Centres of ISRO/DOS.

III - DISCIPLINARY RULES FOR STUDENTS

(A) IN THE CAMPUS:

1. A student of the Institute shall conduct himself/herself, both within and outside the campus of the Institute, in a manner befitting a student of an Institute of national importance. No student is expected to indulge in any activity, which tends to bring down the prestige of the Institute.
2. Every student shall maintain high degree of discipline, decorum and decency, punctuality and attendance.

3. Students shall show due respect and courtesy to the Teachers, Administrators, Officers & Employees of the Institute, during their stay in the premises of the Institute and extend good neighbourly behaviour to fellow students.

In cases involving a group of students, where the persons committing or abetting the acts of discipline are not identified in spite of all efforts, the Institute may resort to collective punishment.

2. Any student on whom a penalty has been imposed under the provisions afore mentioned may appeal against such penalty to the appropriate higher authorities for a final decision thereon.
3. All students should comply with the Rules and Supplementary Rules and Bye-Laws as may be applicable to all registered students of IIST from time to time. Ignorance of any of these shall not be accepted as an excuse for its non-observance on the part of the students. For any violation of the rules and for any other act of indiscipline, the Competent Authority of the Institute shall take action as deemed necessary and appropriate.

IV. ATTENDANCE AND LEAVE:

Attendance is compulsory for every lecture and practicals. Attendance will be a major yardstick for assessing whether the student has satisfied the requirements for completion of a given semester since the evaluation is a continuous process.

Although the students are expected to have 100 % attendance in all subjects, relaxations subject to a minimum attendance of 80% can be given in the following cases:-

- a. Specific illness, hospitalization, accident etc.
- b. Participation in State, National and International level Sports
- c. Participation in approved cultural, technical and other events
- d. Other very genuine reasons

Note: Absence in all such cases (except unexpected medical exigencies needing hospitalization) should be with the prior permission of competent authorities. In the case of hospitalization the student should apply for condonation within 3 days of returning to the campus.

A student, who has an attendance lower than 80% in any subject shall not be permitted to appear in the end semester examination of that subject, whatever the reason for shortfall may be (except prolonged illness and very genuine family exigencies). Also he/she shall not be allowed to write the summer supplementary examination. The registration of the student for the course will be treated as cancelled and he/she shall be awarded 'I' grade in that subject.

A maximum of 30 days vacation leave can be granted based on the recommendation of the Head of the Department including medical and other leaves.

Condonation of Attendance: Attendance shortfall below 80% can be condoned only on special grounds such as prolonged illness and very genuine family exigencies, subject to the following conditions:

- a. Such condonation will be done only in exceptional circumstances and will be decided on a case by case basis.
- b. The student must have secured at least 80% attendance for the period other than his/her condonation period.
- c. Overall attendance in a course including the period of illness and/or absence on special grounds is not below 60%.

All cases of medical emergency must be duly certified by the Institute Physician.

V.MEDICAL SCHEME:

Since health of every student is utmost concern to the Institute, students shall be provided medical care under a comprehensive medical consultancy through a reputed well equipped hospital near the Institute. First aid clinic shall be available in the campus of the Institute. An agreement shall be entered in to with a reputed hospital for both outpatient and inpatient treatment including the cost of medicine, laboratory expenditure etc. the hospital shall be in a position to maintain the health records of each student as prescribed by the Institute.

VI. EVALUATION OF PERFORMANCE:

Credit system and course registration.

The salient features of course registration scheme will be the following:

- i. The curriculum details in terms of the courses and credits will be presented to the students immediately after their admission to the Institute.
- ii. Students need to complete their Post Graduate programme within two years. In exceptional cases, it may be extended to the third year.

- iii. Maximum time limit for successful completion of M.Tech/ Master of Sciences course shall be three years.
- iv. Any student having more than 8 backlog credits at the end of first year and after appearing in the summer supplementary examinations will have to leave the Institute.
- v. Any student having less than or equal to 8 backlog credits at the end of first year and after appearing in the summer supplementary examinations will not get his/her scholarship for the second year.
- vi. A student will be allowed to submit his/her Post Graduate thesis only after the student clears all the courses.
- vii. All students will get their scholarship in their first semester. Scholarship for a student will be available from the second and later semesters only if they secure a CGPA of 6.0 and above (in a scale of 10).
- viii. Supplementary examinations will be conducted at the end of first year for students to clear the backlog courses.
- ix. Academic performance of each student will be assessed on the basis of continuous assessment and an end semester examination. In theory courses the weightage for the continuous assessment and end semester examination will be 50:50. For continuous assessment, the internal assessment based on assignments/ mini projects/ seminar/ class test will not exceed 20% of the total marks. Each subject will have minimum of two quiz examinations to determine the remaining 30% of the total marks.
- x. Each subject will have one end semester examination of three hours duration. In the case of laboratory courses and practicals the evaluation is continuous. It is mandatory that the students appear for all the end semester examination for the completion of the course. Institute may make necessary changes in the assessment procedure as deemed appropriate in the best interest of maintaining academic standard.

Grading System

Based on the performance in each course, a student is awarded at the end of the semester, a letter grade in each of the courses registered. The letter grades, the corresponding grade points and the ratings are as follows:

Letter Grade	Grade Point
S	10
A	9
B	8
C	7
D	6
E	5
F	0
I	Incomplete
W	Withheld

The 'I' grade will be subsequently changed in to appropriate grade when the student registers for the course again. A student is considered to have successfully completed the course and earned the credit if he/she scores a letter grade E or better in that course.

Declaration of Result: After finalization of the grades the result will be announced by the Institute as per the dates announced by the Institute.

Total Grade Point Average (TGPA): On completion of a semester, each student is assigned Total Grade Point Average (TGPA) which is computed as below for all courses registered by the student during that semester.

$$\text{Total Grade Point Average} = \frac{\sum(C_i \times G_{pi})}{\sum(C_i)}$$

Where

C_i is the credit for i^{th} course in any semester.

and

G_{pi} is the grade point for that course.

The summation is over all the courses registered by the student during the semester including the failed courses. The TGPA is rounded off to two decimals.

Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA): The overall performance of a student at any stage of the M.Tech/Master of Sciences Degree Programme is evaluated by the Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) upto that point of time.

$$\text{Total Grade Point Average} = \frac{\sum(C_i \times G_{pi})}{\sum(C_i)}$$

Where

C_i is the credit for i^{th} course in any semester.

and

G_{pi} is the grade point for that course.

The summation is over all the courses registered by the student during the semester including the failed courses. The CGPA is rounded off to two decimals. The ranking of the students in a batch at any intermediate or final stage is based on CGPA.

Grade Card: The Grade Card issued to the student at the end of the each semester.

Dissertation:

Every student is required to register for the project work to be carried out during the third and fourth semester, under a faculty member, and that faculty member will be referred to as the students' M.Tech/Master of Sciences advisor. If the advisor is from other department then an approval from the students' parent department is necessary.

Towards the end of third and fourth semesters, the PG student is required to submit a dissertation report documenting all his/ her work, including system design, theory, experiments, and performance evaluation as applicable. The dissertation report is to be submitted to the respective department through the advisor.

The Head of the Department will constitute an evaluation committee to help the final evaluation of the students dissertation. The evaluation committee is usually headed by the Head of the Department and consists of M.Tech/Master of Sciences advisor and some faculty members of the department. All the M.Tech/Master of Sciences students are required to present their work before the evaluation committee.

After completing the evaluation the committee will assign a letter grade to the student. If the dissertation is not satisfactory, the student will be asked to continue the dissertation and appear for the evaluation later and an “T” grade will be given.

VII. CONFERENCE/PROJECT WORK:

1. Post Graduate students shall be considered for support for one seminar or conference within India and during their PG programme in case, they are presenting their M.Tech/ Master of Science project work as an oral/ poster presentation.
2. PG students undertaking second year project work at external research laboratory/ organization will be eligible to draw monthly fellowship from IIST and are not entitled for travelling allowance and daily allowances. Such PG students can avail monthly fellowship only from one source.

VIII. TEMPORARY WITHDRAWAL:

A PG student who has completed all the course work except for course study/ seminar/ viva-voce are permitted to temporarily withdraw from the PG programme for joining a job under the following conditions.

- a) The student shall submit a “No Objection Certificate” from the organization he/ she joined within six months of joining, clearly indicating either organization shall grant him or her minimum seven months of leave to pursue and complete the PG project work at IIST or shall permit him or her to carry out the project work at their organizational research facility.
- b) Students shall remit tuition fee and 50% of establishment charges every semester till he/she completes the PG programme. Maximum duration to complete PG programme is three years.

Guidelines to Candidates appearing for the End Semester Examinations

1. Candidates appearing in the End Semester examination must bring their valid Identity card without which they will not be permitted to write the examination. The invigilator is authorized to demand the ID card of a candidate any time during the examination or immediately before or after it.
2. The candidates are not permitted to carry Cell Phones, Programmable Calculators, PDAs, iPods and other electronic equipments to the examination hall. If the candidates are found in possession of such equipments, strict disciplinary action will be initiated. Only those calculators issued by the Institute, geometry sets and approved tables like statistical tables will be permitted inside the hall.
3. Candidates are strictly prohibited from bringing any bits of paper, manuals, textbooks, loose sheets or other materials to the hall with the intention of gaining undue advantage in the examination. Writings or drawings on body parts, clothes, footwear or any examination aids like calculators, geometry sets and printed tables will be regarded as a malpractice attracting serious disciplinary action.
4. Candidates are advised to enter the examination hall at the stroke of the first Bell (15 minutes before the commencement of examination). Under no circumstance, a candidate will be permitted to enter examination hall after the scheduled time of commencement of the examination.
5. The second bell will ring at the scheduled time of commencement of the examination. The third bell will ring 30 minutes after the commencement of the examination. The fourth bell will ring 10 minutes before the end of the examination and the fifth and final bell will ring at the end of the examination.
6. Candidates are not allowed to leave the examination hall in the first 30 minutes or in the last 10 minutes. In the interim period, candidates can move out of the hall, after depositing the answer sheets, but they will not be allowed to reenter the hall and resume writing the examination.
7. Strict silence shall be maintained inside the examination hall.

8. The candidates must write their Student ID No. in the Answer book in the space earmarked for it. They should also carefully fill other details required on the first page of Answer book.
9. An attendance sheet will be circulated in the hall. All candidates must affix their signature against their names in the attendance sheet.
10. The candidates are advised to go through the instructions on the first page of the Answer book before writing their answers. On receiving the question paper, the candidates shall verify the Course code, Course title, Number of pages and Number of questions in the question paper. If there is any discrepancy, the candidates are advised to bring it to the notice of the Invigilator immediately.
11. Examination malpractices of any nature will be treated with utmost seriousness and disciplinary action may extend up to expulsion from the Institute. Any student found indulging in any form of examination malpractice during end semester examination and winter/summer supplementary examination will not have his/her answer paper evaluated and will be awarded "I" grade for all the theory courses registered during that semester or summer supplementary examination. Any student found indulging in any form of examination malpractice during quizzes or any class test during the period of study will get 'Zero' marks for that theory course only. Wherever necessary, legal action will also be initiated against the candidates or any other person aiding, abetting or indulging in examination malpractice. If any candidate is found indulging in examination malpractice, the invigilator has the full authority to expel him/her from the examination hall.
12. After completing the examination, the candidates shall personally handover the answer books to the Hall Invigilator. Keeping the answer book on the table and leaving the examination hall may result in the answer sheet not being considered for evaluation. A student who takes the answer book without submitting the same to the invigilator will be subjected to disciplinary action.

UGC REGULATIONS ON CURBING THE MENACE OF RAGGING IN HIGHER EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS, 2009.

(under Section 26 (1)(g) of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956)

(TO BE PUBLISHED IN THE GAZETTE OF INDIA PART III, SECTION-4)

F.1-16/2007(CPP-II)

Dated 17th June, 2009.

PREAMBLE.

In view of the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the matter of "University of Kerala v/s. Council, Principals, Colleges and others" in SLP no. 24295 of 2006 dated 16.05.2007 and that dated 8.05.2009 in Civil Appeal number 887 of 2009, and in consideration of the determination of the Central Government and the University Grants Commission to prohibit, prevent and eliminate the scourge of ragging including any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student, or indulging in rowdy or indisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student or asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student, with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student, in all higher education institutions in the country, and thereby, to provide for the healthy development, physically and psychologically, of all students, the University Grants Commission, in consultation with the Councils, brings forth this Regulation.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (g) of sub-section (1) of Section 26 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, the University Grants Commission hereby makes the following Regulations, namely;

1. Title, commencement and applicability.-

1.1 These regulations shall be called the “UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009”.

1.2 They shall come into force from the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

1.3 They shall apply to all the institutions coming within the definition of an University under sub-section (f) of section (2) of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, and to all institutions deemed to be a university under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, to all other higher educational institutions, or elements of such universities or institutions, including its departments, constituent units and all the premises, whether being academic, residential, playgrounds, canteen, or other such premises of such universities, deemed universities and higher educational institutions, whether located within the campus or outside, and to all means of transportation of students, whether public or private, accessed by students for the pursuit of studies in such universities, deemed universities and higher educational institutions.

2. Objectives.-

To prohibit any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student, or indulging in rowdy or indisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student or asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student, with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student; and thereby, to eliminate ragging in all its forms from universities, deemed universities and other higher educational institutions in the country by prohibiting it under these Regulations, preventing its occurrence and punishing those who indulge in ragging as provided for in these Regulations and the appropriate law in force.

3. What constitutes Ragging.- Ragging constitutes one or more of any of the following acts:

- a. any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student;
- b. indulging in rowdy or indisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student;
- c. asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such fresher or any other student;
- d. any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any other student or a fresher;
- e. exploiting the services of a fresher or any other student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students.
- f. any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a fresher or any other student by students;
- g. any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, homosexual assaults, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person;
- h. any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to fresher or any other student ;
- i. any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of a fresher or any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any fresher or any other student.

- f) The application for admission shall be accompanied by a document in the form of, or annexed to, the School Leaving Certificate/Transfer Certificate/Migration Certificate/Character Certificate reporting on the inter-personal/social behavioural pattern of the applicant, to be issued by the school or institution last attended by the applicant, so that the institution can thereafter keep watch on the applicant, if admitted, whose behaviour has been commented in such document.
- g) A student seeking admission to a hostel forming part of the institution, or seeking to reside in any temporary premises not forming part of the institution, including a private commercially managed lodge or hostel, shall have to submit additional affidavits countersigned by his/her parents/guardians in the form prescribed in Annexure I and Annexure II to these Regulations respectively along with his/her application.
- h) Before the commencement of the academic session in any institution, the Head of the Institution shall convene and address a meeting of various functionaries/agencies, such as Hostel Wardens, representatives of students, parents/ guardians, faculty, district administration including the police, to discuss the measures to be taken to prevent ragging in the institution and steps to be taken to identify those indulging in or abetting ragging and punish them.
- i) The institution shall, to make the community at large and the students in particular aware of the dehumanizing effect of ragging, and the approach of the institution towards those indulging in ragging, prominently display posters depicting the provisions of penal law applicable to incidents of ragging, and the provisions of these Regulations and also any other law for the time being in force, and the punishments thereof, shall be prominently displayed on Notice Boards of all departments, hostels and other buildings as well as at places, where students normally gather and at places, known to be vulnerable to occurrences of ragging incidents.
- j) The institution shall request the media to give adequate publicity to the law prohibiting ragging and the negative aspects of ragging and the institution's resolve to ban ragging and punish those found guilty without fear or favour.
- k) The institution shall identify, properly illuminate and keep a close watch on all locations known to be vulnerable to occurrences of ragging incidents.
- l) The institution shall tighten security in its premises, especially at vulnerable places and intense policing by Anti-Ragging Squad, referred to in these Regulations and volunteers, if any, shall be resorted to at such points at odd hours during the first few months of the academic session.

- m) The institution shall utilize the vacation period before the start of the new academic year to launch a publicity campaign against ragging through posters, leaflets and such other means, as may be desirable or required, to promote the objectives of these Regulations.
- n) The faculties/departments/units of the institution shall have induction arrangements, including those which anticipate, identify and plan to meet any special needs of any specific section of students, in place well in advance of the beginning of the academic year with an aim to promote the objectives of this Regulation.
- o) Every institution shall engage or seek the assistance of professional counsellors before the commencement of the academic session, to be available when required by the institution, for the purposes of offering counselling to freshers and to other students after the commencement of the academic year.
- p) The head of the institution shall provide information to the local police and local authorities, the details of every privately commercially managed hostels or lodges used for residential purposes by students enrolled in the institution and the head of the institution shall also ensure that the Anti-Ragging Squad shall ensure vigil in such locations to prevent the occurrence of ragging therein.

6.2 An institution shall, on admission or enrolment or registration of students, take the following steps, namely;

- a) Every fresh student admitted to the institution shall be given a printed leaflet detailing to whom he/she has to turn to for help and guidance for various purposes including addresses and telephone numbers, so as to enable the student to contact the concerned person at any time, if and when required, of the Anti-Ragging Helpline referred to in these Regulations, Wardens, Head of the institution, all members of the anti-ragging squads and committees, relevant district and police authorities.
- b) The institution, through the leaflet specified in clause (a) of Regulation 6.2 of these Regulations shall explain to the freshers, the arrangements made for their induction and orientation which promote efficient and effective means of integrating them fully as students with those already admitted to the institution in earlier years.
- c) The leaflet specified in clause (a) of Regulation 6.2 of these Regulations shall inform the freshers about their rights as bona fide students of the institution and clearly instructing them that they should desist from doing anything, with or against their will, even if ordered to by the seniors students, and that any attempt of ragging shall be promptly reported to the Anti-ragging Squad or to the Warden or to the Head of the institution, as the case may be.

- d) The leaflet specified in clause (a) of Regulation 6.2 of these Regulations shall contain a calendar of events and activities laid down by the institution to facilitate and complement familiarization of freshers with the academic environment of the institution.
- e) The institution shall, on the arrival of senior students after the first week or after the second week, as the case may be, schedule orientation programmes as follows, namely; (i) joint sensitization programme and counselling of both freshers and senior students by a professional counsellor, referred to in clause (o) of Regulation 6.1 of these Regulations; (ii) joint orientation programme of freshers and seniors to be addressed by the Head of the institution and the anti -ragging committee;(iii) organization on a large scale of cultural, sports and other activities to provide a platform for the freshers and seniors to interact in the presence of faculty members ; (iv) in the hostel, the warden should address all students; and may request two junior colleagues from the college faculty to assist the warden by becoming resident tutors for a temporary duration.(v) as far as possible faculty members should dine with the hostel residents in their respective hostels to instil a feeling of confidence among the freshers.
- f) The institution shall set up appropriate committees, including the course-in- charge, student advisor, Wardens and some senior students as its members, to actively monitor, promote and regulate healthy interaction between the freshers, junior students and senior students.
- g) Freshers or any other student(s), whether being victims, or witnesses, in any incident of ragging, shall be encouraged to report such occurrence, and the identity of such informants shall be protected and shall not be subject to any adverse consequence only for the reason for having reported such incidents.
- h) Each batch of freshers, on arrival at the institution, shall be divided into small groups and each such group shall be assigned to a member of the faculty, who shall interact individually with each member of the group every day for ascertaining the problems or difficulties, if any, faced by the fresher in the institution and shall extend necessary help to the fresher in overcoming the same.

- i) It shall be the responsibility of the member of the faculty assigned to the group of freshers, to coordinate with the Wardens of the hostels and to make surprise visits to the rooms in such hostels, where a member or members of the group are lodged; and such member of faculty shall maintain a diary of his/her interaction with the freshers under his/her charge.
- j) Freshers shall be lodged, as far as may be, in a separate hostel block, and where such facilities are not available, the institution shall ensure that access of seniors to accommodation allotted to freshers is strictly monitored by wardens, security guards and other staff of the institution.
- k) A round the clock vigil against ragging in the hostel premises, in order to prevent ragging in the hostels after the classes are over, shall be ensured by the institution.
- l) It shall be the responsibility of the parents/guardians of freshers to promptly bring any instance of ragging to the notice of the Head of the Institution.
- m) Every student studying in the institution and his/her parents/guardians shall provide the specific affidavits required under clauses (d), (e) and (g) of Regulation 6.1 of these Regulations at the time of admission or registration, as the case may be, during each academic year.
- n) Every institution shall obtain the affidavit from every student as referred to above in clause (m) of Regulation 6.2 and maintain a proper record of the same and to ensure its safe upkeep thereof, including maintaining the copies of the affidavit in an electronic form, to be accessed easily when required either by the Commission or any of the Councils or by the institution or by the affiliating University or by any other person or organisation authorised to do so.
- o) Every student at the time of his/her registration shall inform the institution about his/her place of residence while pursuing the course of study, and in case the student has not decided his/her place of residence or intends to change the same, the details of his place of residence shall be provided immediately on deciding the same; and specifically in regard to a private commercially managed lodge or hostel where he/she has taken up residence.
- p) The Head of the institution shall, on the basis of the information provided by the student under clause (o) of Regulation 6.2, apportion sectors to be assigned to members of the faculty, so that such member of faculty can maintain vigil and report any incident of ragging outside the campus or en route while commuting to the institution using any means of transportation of students, whether public or private.

- q) The Head of the institution shall, at the end of each academic year, send a letter to the parents/guardians of the students who are completing their first year in the institution, informing them about these Regulations and any law for the time being in force prohibiting ragging and the punishments thereof as well as punishments prescribed under the penal laws, and appealing to them to impress upon their wards to desist from indulging in ragging on their return to the institution at the beginning of the academic session next.

6.3 Every institution shall constitute the following bodies; namely,

- a) Every institution shall constitute a Committee to be known as the Anti-Ragging Committee to be nominated and headed by the Head of the institution, and consisting of representatives of civil and police administration, local media, Non Government Organizations involved in youth activities, representatives of faculty members, representatives of parents, representatives of students belonging to the freshers' category as well as senior students, non-teaching staff; and shall have a diverse mix of membership in terms of levels as well as gender.
- b) It shall be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Committee to ensure compliance with the provisions of these Regulations as well as the provisions of any law for the time being in force concerning ragging; and also to monitor and oversee the performance of the Anti-Ragging Squad in prevention of ragging in the institution.
- c) Every institution shall also constitute a smaller body to be known as the Anti- Ragging Squad to be nominated by the Head of the Institution with such representation as may be considered necessary for maintaining vigil, oversight and patrolling functions and shall remain mobile, alert and active at all times. Provided that the Anti-Ragging Squad shall have representation of various members of the campus community and shall have no outside representation.
- d) It shall be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Squad to be called upon to make surprise raids on hostels, and other places vulnerable to incidents of, and having the potential of, ragging and shall be empowered to inspect such places.

- e) It shall also be the duty of the Anti-Ragging Squad to conduct an on-the-spot enquiry into any incident of ragging referred to it by the Head of the institution or any member of the faculty or any member of the staff or any student or any parent or guardian or any employee of a service provider or by any other person, as the case may be; and the enquiry report along with recommendations shall be submitted to the Anti-Ragging Committee for action under clause (a) of Regulation 9.1. Provided that the Anti-Ragging Squad shall conduct such enquiry observing a fair and transparent procedure and the principles of natural justice and after giving adequate opportunity to the student or students accused of ragging and other witnesses to place before it the facts, documents and views concerning the incident of ragging, and considering such other relevant information as may be required.
- f) Every institution shall, at the end of each academic year, in order to promote the objectives of these Regulations, constitute a Mentoring Cell consisting of students volunteering to be Mentors for freshers, in the succeeding academic year; and there shall be as many levels or tiers of Mentors as the number of batches in the institution, at the rate of one Mentor for six freshers and one Mentor of a higher level for six Mentors of the lower level.
- g) Every University shall constitute a body to be known as Monitoring Cell on Ragging, which shall coordinate with the affiliated colleges and institutions under the domain of the University to achieve the objectives of these Regulations; and the Monitoring Cell shall call for reports from the Heads of institutions in regard to the activities of the Anti-Ragging Committees, Anti - Ragging Squads, and the Mentoring Cells at the institutions, and it shall also keep itself abreast of the decisions of the District level Anti-Ragging Committee headed by the District Magistrate.
- h) The Monitoring Cell shall also review the efforts made by institutions to publicize anti-ragging measures, soliciting of affidavits from parents/guardians and from students, each academic year, to abstain from ragging activities or willingness to be penalized for violations; and shall function as the prime mover for initiating action on the part of the appropriate authorities of the university for amending the Statutes or Ordinances or Bye-laws to facilitate the implementation of anti- ragging measures at the level of the institution.

6.4 Every institution shall take the following other measures, namely;

- a) Each hostel or a place where groups of students reside, forming part of the institution, shall have a full-time Warden, to be appointed by the institution as per the eligibility criteria laid down for the post reflecting both the command and control aspects of maintaining discipline and preventing incidents of ragging within the hostel, as well as the softer skills of counselling and communicating with the youth outside the class-room situation; and who shall reside within the hostel, or at the very least, in the close vicinity thereof.
- b) The Warden shall be accessible at all hours and be available on telephone and other modes of communication, and for the purpose the Warden shall be provided with a mobile phone by the institution, the number of which shall be publicised among all students residing in the hostel.
- c) The institution shall review and suitably enhance the powers of Wardens; and the security personnel posted in hostels shall be under the direct control of the Warden and their performance shall be assessed by them.
- d) The professional counsellors referred to under clause (o) of Regulation 6.1 of these Regulations shall, at the time of admission, counsel freshers and/or any other student(s) desiring counselling, in order to prepare them for the life ahead, particularly in regard to the life in hostels and to the extent possible, also involve parents and teachers in the counselling sessions.
- e) The institution shall undertake measures for extensive publicity against ragging by means of audio-visual aids, counselling sessions, workshops, painting and design competitions among students and such other measures, as it may deem fit.
- f) In order to enable a student or any person to communicate with the Anti-Ragging Helpline, every institution shall permit unrestricted access to mobile phones and public phones in hostels and campuses, other than in class-rooms, seminar halls, library, and in such other places that the institution may deem it necessary to restrict the use of phones.
- g) The faculty of the institution and its non-teaching staff, which includes but is not limited to the administrative staff, contract employees, security guards and employees of service providers providing services within the institution, shall be sensitized towards the ills of ragging, its prevention and the consequences thereof.
- h) The institution shall obtain an undertaking from every employee of the institution including all teaching and non-teaching members of staff, contract labour employed in the premises either for running canteen or as watch and ward staff or for cleaning or maintenance of the buildings/lawns and employees of service providers providing services within the institution, that he/she would report promptly any case of ragging which comes to his/her notice.

- i) The institution shall make a provision in the service rules of its employees for issuing certificates of appreciation to such members of the staff who report incidents of ragging, which will form part of their service record.
- j) The institution shall give necessary instructions to the employees of the canteens and messing, whether that of the institution or that of a service provider providing this service, or their employers, as the case may be, to keep a strict vigil in the area of their work and to report the incidents of ragging to the Head of the institution or members of the Anti-Ragging Squad or members of the Anti-Ragging Committee or the Wardens, as may be required.
- k) All Universities awarding a degree in education at any level, shall be required to ensure that institutions imparting instruction in such courses or conducting training programme for teachers include inputs relating to anti-ragging and the appreciation of the relevant human rights, as well as inputs on topics regarding sensitization against corporal punishments and checking of bullying amongst students, so that every teacher is equipped to handle at least the rudiments of the counselling approach.
- l) Discreet random surveys shall be conducted amongst the freshers every fortnight during the first three months of the academic year to verify and cross-check whether the institution is indeed free of ragging or not and for the purpose the institution may design its own methodology of conducting such surveys.
- m) The institution shall cause to have an entry, apart from those relating to general conduct and behaviour, made in the Migration/Transfer Certificate issued to the student while leaving the institution, as to whether the student has been punished for committing or abetting an act of ragging, as also whether the student has displayed persistent violent or aggressive behaviour or any inclination to harm others, during his course of study in the institution.
- n) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Regulations with regard to obligations and responsibilities pertaining to the authorities or members of bodies prescribed above, it shall be the general collective responsibility of all levels and sections of authorities or functionaries including members of the faculty and employees of the institution, whether regular or temporary, and employees of service providers providing service within the institution, to prevent or to act promptly against the occurrence of ragging or any incident of ragging which comes to their notice.

- o) The Heads of institutions affiliated to a University or a constituent of the University, as the case may be, shall, during the first three months of an academic year, submit a weekly report on the status of compliance with Anti- Ragging measures under these Regulations, and a monthly report on such status thereafter, to the Vice-Chancellor of the University to which the institution is affiliated to or recognized by.
- p) The Vice Chancellor of each University, shall submit fortnightly reports of the University, including those of the Monitoring Cell on Ragging in case of an affiliating university, to the State Level Monitoring Cell.

7. Action to be taken by the Head of the institution.-

On receipt of the recommendation of the Anti Ragging Squad or on receipt of any information concerning any reported incident of ragging, the Head of institution shall immediately determine if a case under the penal laws is made out and if so, either on his own or through a member of the Anti-Ragging Committee authorised by him in this behalf, proceed to file a First Information Report (FIR), within twenty four hours of receipt of such information or recommendation, with the police and local authorities, under the appropriate penal provisions relating to one or more of the following, namely;

- i. Abetment to ragging;
- ii. Criminal conspiracy to rag;
- iii. Unlawful assembly and rioting while ragging;
- iv. Public nuisance created during ragging;
- v. Violation of decency and morals through ragging;
- vi. Injury to body, causing hurt or grievous hurt;
- vii. Wrongful restraint;
- viii. Wrongful confinement;
- ix. Use of criminal force;
- x. Assault as well as sexual offences or unnatural offences;
- xi. Extortion;
- xii. Criminal trespass;
- xiii. Offences against property;
- xiv. Criminal intimidation;
- xv. Attempts to commit any or all of the above mentioned offences against the victim(s);

- xvi. Threat to commit any or all of the above mentioned offences against the victim(s);
- xvii. Physical or psychological humiliation;
- xviii. All other offences following from the definition of “Ragging”.

Provided that the Head of the institution shall forthwith report the occurrence of the incident of ragging to the District Level Anti-Ragging Committee and the Nodal officer of the affiliating University, if the institution is an affiliated institution.

Provided further that the institution shall also continue with its own enquiry initiated under clause 9 of these Regulations and other measures without waiting for action on the part of the police/local authorities and such remedial action shall be initiated and completed immediately and in no case later than a period of seven days of the reported occurrence of the incident of ragging.

8.Duties and Responsibilities of the Commission and the Councils.-

8.1 The Commission shall, with regard to providing facilitating communication of information regarding incidents of ragging in any institution, take the following steps, namely;

- a) The Commission shall establish, fund and operate, a toll-free Anti-Ragging Helpline, operational round the clock, which could be accessed by students in distress owing to ragging related incidents.
- b) Any distress message received at the Anti-Ragging Helpline shall be simultaneously relayed to the Head of the Institution, the Warden of the Hostels, the Nodal Officer of the affiliating University, if the incident reported has taken place in an institution affiliated to a University, the concerned District authorities and if so required, the District Magistrate, and the Superintendent of Police, and shall also be web enabled so as to be in the public domain simultaneously for the media and citizens to access it.
- c) The Head of the institution shall be obliged to act immediately in response to the information received from the Anti-Ragging Helpline as at sub-clause (b) of this clause.
- d) The telephone numbers of the Anti-Ragging Helpline and all the important functionaries in every institution, Heads of institutions, faculty members, members of the anti-ragging committees and anti ragging squads, district and sub-divisional authorities and state authorities, Wardens of hostels, and other functionaries or authorities where relevant, shall be widely disseminated for access or to seek help in emergencies.

- e) The Commission shall maintain an appropriate data base to be created out of affidavits, affirmed by each student and his/her parents/guardians and stored electronically by the institution, either on its or through an agency to be designated by it; and such database shall also function as a record of ragging complaints received, and the status of the action taken thereon.
- f) The Commission shall make available the database to a non-governmental agency to be nominated by the Central Government, to build confidence in the public and also to provide information of non compliance with these Regulations to the Councils and to such bodies as may be authorised by the Commission or by the Central Government.

8.2 The Commission shall take the following regulatory steps, namely;

- a) The Commission shall make it mandatory for the institutions to incorporate in their prospectus, the directions of the Central Government or the State Level Monitoring Committee with regard to prohibition and consequences of ragging, and that non-compliance with these Regulations and directions so provided, shall be considered as lowering of academic standards by the institution, therefore making it liable for appropriate action.
- b) The Commission shall verify that the institutions strictly comply with the requirement of getting the affidavits from the students and their parents/guardians as envisaged under these Regulations.
- c) The Commission shall include a specific condition in the Utilization Certificate, in respect of any financial assistance or grants-in-aid to any institution under any of the general or special schemes of the Commission, that the institution has complied with the anti-ragging measures.
- d) Any incident of ragging in an institution shall adversely affect its accreditation, ranking or grading by NAAC or by any other authorised accreditation agencies while assessing the institution for accreditation, ranking or grading purposes.
- e) The Commission may accord priority in financial grants-in-aid to those institutions, otherwise eligible to receive grants under section 12B of the Act, which report a blemishless record in terms of there being no reported incident of ragging.
- f) The Commission shall constitute an Inter-Council Committee, consisting of representatives of the various Councils, the Non-Governmental agency responsible for monitoring the database maintained by the Commission under clause (g) of Regulation 8.1 and such other bodies in higher education, to coordinate and monitor the anti-ragging measures in institutions across the country and to make recommendations from time to time; and shall meet at least once in six months each year.

- g) The Commission shall institute an Anti-Ragging Cell within the Commission as an institutional mechanism to provide secretarial support for collection of information and monitoring, and to coordinate with the State Level Monitoring Cell and University level Committees for effective implementation of anti-ragging measures, and the Cell shall also coordinate with the Non-Governmental agency responsible for monitoring the database maintained by the Commission appointed under clause (g) of Regulation 8.1.

9. Administrative action in the event of ragging.-

9.1 The institution shall punish a student found guilty of ragging after following the procedure and in the manner prescribed hereinunder:

- a) The Anti-Ragging Committee of the institution shall take an appropriate decision, in regard to punishment or otherwise, depending on the facts of each incident of ragging and nature and gravity of the incident of ragging established in the recommendations of the Anti-Ragging Squad.
- b) The Anti-Ragging Committee may, depending on the nature and gravity of the guilt established by the Anti-Ragging Squad, award, to those found guilty, one or more of the following punishments, namely;
- i. Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges.
 - ii. Withholding/ withdrawing scholarship/ fellowship and other benefits.
 - iii. Debarring from appearing in any test/ examination or other evaluation process.
 - iv. Withholding results.
 - v. Debarring from representing the institution in any regional, national or international meet, tournament, youth festival, etc.
 - vi. Suspension/ expulsion from the hostel.
 - vii. Cancellation of admission.
 - viii. Rustication from the institution for period ranging from one to four semesters.
 - ix. Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution for a specified period.

Provided that where the persons committing or abetting the act of ragging are not identified, the institution shall resort to collective punishment.

- c) An appeal against the order of punishment by the Anti-Ragging Committee shall lie,
- i. in case of an order of an institution, affiliated to or constituent part, of a University, to the Vice-Chancellor of the University;
 - ii. in case of an order of a University, to its Chancellor.
 - iii. in case of an institution of national importance created by an Act of Parliament, to the Chairman or Chancellor of the institution, as the case may be.

9.2 Where an institution, being constituent of, affiliated to or recognized by a University, fails to comply with any of the provisions of these Regulations or fails to curb ragging effectively, such University may take any one or more of the following actions, namely;

- i. Withdrawal of affiliation/recognition or other privileges conferred.
- ii. Prohibiting such institution from presenting any student or students then undergoing any programme of study therein for the award of any degree/diploma of the University. Provided that where an institution is prohibited from presenting its student or students, the Commission shall make suitable arrangements for the other students so as to ensure that such students are able to pursue their academic studies.
- iii. Withholding grants allocated to it by the university, if any
- iv. Withholding any grants channellised through the university to the institution.
- v. Any other appropriate penalty within the powers of the university.

9.3 Where in the opinion of the appointing authority, a lapse is attributable to any member of the faculty or staff of the institution, in the matter of reporting or taking prompt action to prevent an incident of ragging or who display an apathetic or insensitive attitude towards complaints of ragging, or who fail to take timely steps, whether required under these Regulations or otherwise, to prevent an incident or incidents of ragging, then such authority shall initiate departmental disciplinary action, in accordance with the prescribed procedure of the institution, against such member of the faculty or staff. Provided that where such lapse is attributable to the Head of the institution, the authority designated to appoint such Head shall take such departmental disciplinary action; and such action shall be without prejudice to any action that may be taken under the penal laws for abetment of ragging for failure to take timely steps in the prevention of ragging or punishing any student found guilty of ragging.

9.4 The Commission shall, in respect of any institution that fails to take adequate steps to prevent ragging or fails to act in accordance with these Regulations or fails to punish perpetrators or incidents of ragging suitably, take one or more of the following measures, namely;

- i. Withdrawal of declaration of fitness to receive grants under section 12B of the Act.
- ii. Withholding any grant allocated.
- iii. Declaring the institution ineligible for consideration for any assistance under any of the general or special assistance programmes of the Commission.
- iv. Informing the general public, including potential candidates for admission, through a notice displayed prominently in the newspapers or other suitable media and posted on the website of the Commission, declaring that the institution does not possess the minimum academic standards.
- v. Taking such other action within its powers as it may deem fit and impose such other penalties as may be provided in the Act for such duration of time as the institution complies with the provisions of these Regulations.

Provided that the action taken under this clause by the Commission against any institution shall be shared with all Councils.
